Milo Man Sentenced on Federal Drug Charges

Bangor Maine: United States Attorney Paula D. Silsby announced that Winslow Newbert, age 40, of Milo, Maine, was sentenced on June 2, 2008, in U.S. District Court in Bangor, Maine, to 115 months imprisonment and three years supervised release, for possession with intent to distribute Cocaine. Newbert was convicted by a jury on December 13, 2007.

Court records reveal that in February 2002, a search of Newbert's residence in Milo revealed approximately 18 grams of cocaine. Also recovered were digital scales and records related to Newbert's narcotics transactions. The evidence also demonstrated that Newbert had traded cocaine, oxycodone and methadone for stolen property brought to him by various customers. At the time of the search of his residence, agents recovered in excess of $9,600.00 in stolen personal property.

United States Attorney Silsby praised the investigation conducted by the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration, the Maine State Police, the Penobscot County Sheriff's Office, the Piscataquis County Sheriff's Office, the Brewer Police Department, the Milo Police Department, the Old Town Police Department, and the Eastern Maine Violent Crimes Task Force.
